Client Testimonials

“Getting your finance ops into good health is no easy task, and the truth is it doesn't really affect a startup's life until that moment happens... but when that moment happens, gee golly do you wish you had things in good order. We started working with Jay and his team early in 2025 and so we definitely lucked out on that one. Thanks for all the help! I would have metaphorically died without you!”

Tyson Mao
Co-founder and CEO

“Jay and the Stepmark team were instrumental during the final stages of our transaction between Truework and Checkr. They got onboard incredibly fast and contributed immediate value when it mattered most. I have full confidence in their competence and experience; I highly recommend them and will certainly be using Stepmark again in the future.”

Nikola Obradovic
VP, Finance

“When we decided to sell our company, we initially planned to manage the process ourselves. An investor recommended Jay, and that recommendation proved critical.

Jay and his team quickly understood our goals and constraints, then ran a disciplined, end-to-end M&A process. They built a strong pipeline of qualified buyers, managed outreach and scheduling, and consistently put us in front of serious, motivated parties. The process was organized, efficient, and professionally executed from start to finish.

Quite simply, without Jay, this transaction would not have happened. He combines sharp strategic judgment with exceptional execution, which is a rare mix. We're extremely grateful to have worked with him during a pivotal moment for our company.”

Danny Leonard
Co-founder and CEO

“Stepmark Partners provided indispensable strategic advisory work during a defining phase for Alphawatch. Their ability to synthesize complex topics into strategic advice provided our leadership team with clarity. We found their guidance and commitment to our long-term objectives to be a critical asset in navigating our path forward.”
